

Berlin Accommodation Resources

Most people you meet in Berlin have, at some point or another, been involved in the Berlin flat hunt. With property in high demand, it's not always the easiest of missions. Luckily, mostly everyone will have nuggets of wisdom, advice, practical help and understanding to offer. So fear not, you will figure it out!

Once you sign up for a Piscine, you will be added to a Telegram group full of future pisciners; this could be a great place to start asking around. Networking for flats is hugely valuable in a place like Berlin. When you're on campus, asking your peers whether they know of any available accommodation could also be hugely helpful. But, until then, here are a few resources that have helped us.

WG-GESUCHT

<https://www.wg-gesucht.de/>

Immoscout24

<https://www.immobilienscout24.de/>

ImmoWelt

<https://www.immowelt.de/suche/berlin/wohnungen>

Facebook Housing Groups

- Must request to join
- Beware of scammers
- Never pay for a flat you have not seen in real life

Some examples:

<https://www.facebook.com/groups/1301177050272820/>

<https://www.facebook.com/groups/berlinlongtermflats/>

<https://www.facebook.com/groups/307681233184179/>

Ebay Kleinanzeigen

<https://www.ebay-kleinanzeigen.de/s-auf-zeit-wg/berlin/c19913331>

- Again, always be wary of scammers

Some other helpful resources:

<https://allaboutberlin.com/guides/find-a-flat-in-berlin>

- Here's a useful guide for finding a flat in Berlin.

<https://allaboutberlin.com/tools/appointment-finder>

- This could prove useful when you need to get an appointment for your registration aka Anmeldung.

Our 42 Berlin Subreddit

<https://www.reddit.com/r/42Berlin/>

- you can post here about your needs and get responses from members of our community and beyond.

We hope this helps and we wish you the best of luck.

We hope to see you on campus soon!

Lots of love,

Your 42 Berlin Team